Ofira Sephiroth ~ Biography

Ofira Sephiroth, born in Washington, Pennsylvania in 1975, is the middle-child of five. After earning an Associates' Degree in Business Administration from Penn Commercial Business, Inc. (1995), she worked in a bank and then briefly as a secretary.

In 1999, Ofira relocated to Louisville, Kentucky where she currently resides with her sister, C. R. Stone, and two pets. In 2002, Ofira received a Diploma with Highest Honors in Astrology/Parapsychology from Stratford Career Institute.

The writing stage of Ofira's life began in 2001. Working mainly with poetry and song lyrics, she began turning her attention to music, her first passion. Forming Mortis de Serpentis Productions in 2006, Ofira began composing Electronic music under the pseudonym Lady Venom. In early 2009, she teamed up with her sister, under the pen name Pia Zellini, to form the writing team of Delgado Zellini.

In 2007, Ofira published the first volume of Unspeakable Truths (Damnation Begins). Versified Darkness was published in 2008. The second volume of Unspeakable Truths, Baptism By Blood, was published in 2009. Two of Ofira's poems were previously published in The Velvet Paradox by Jonathan Martin (2006).

Ofira is currently working on This Tryst (her first book of erotic poetry), the final volume of Unspeakable Truths, the second volume of the Versified series, Separate Frames (devoted to flash fiction) and various eBooks.

When not writing or composing music, Ofira enjoys bowling, spending time with pets and watching horror movies.

Ofira Sephiroth's Reviews & Author Quotes

Unspeakable Truths, Volume 1: Damnation Begins Reviews

“Ofira quickly pulls the reader into a world of imagination. Unspeakable Truths, Volume 1 sings through brilliant poetic voice and verse. The journey to damnation continues with creative flash fiction tales that left me wanting to read more. Simply awesome.” - C. R. Stone, April 9, 2009

“Five chapters of poetry and one chapter treat of flash fiction comprise Unspeakable Truths Volume 1: Damnation Begins.

Just by glancing at the front cover of the book, before even diving into the book itself, I am drawn in and cannot leave without turning its pages. The image seen on the front cover of the hourglass behind a dark sky, leaves me in a pondering trance, wondering about what lies within the book's many pages.

The poetry that fills the pages is penetrated with a great deal of emotion that leaves me affected. I even find myself connecting to some of the verses that I read. While the poems in this book are those of a dark nature, there is a bit of beauty about them too.

The flash fiction is very interesting and when I am done with the read, I am left craving for more...

This is a great book that has been well organized, and the inside pages make it feel like a true poetry book. It will be a great add to your collection, and an enjoyable treat, so get it today.” - Lena Kovadlo, October 22, 2008

NaPoWriMo 2009

“Enjoyed the book! Kudos to you :) Your style is intriguing and unique.” - She Poet, August 29, 2009
